A good 2nd on turf at KEE Oct. 18, was then freshened a couple months and came back smokin' to easily beat maidens on dirt here Dec. 28; so, that shows the footing is no problem and while that Dec. 28 win was at a mile note she had a 5-length lead after 7fs, today's distance; Beyerwise she's got some work to do but there's talent here and room for growth.

Connections purchased her privately after a big optional claiming win at GPW Oct. 20 and were made to look pretty bright when she came back to romp in the Hut Hut here Nov. 30; after that trainer Joseph Jr. said he thought he might have a G1 Ky. Oaks filly and would follow the series here, meaning after this it would be the G2 Davona Dale and then G2 GP Oaks; well, first things first, but Beyerwise she's shown her quality and while she cuts back some in distance that should be no problem; oh, and it doesn't hurt she's unbeaten. -Michael Hammersly
