CLOSER LOOK: Nice race; mare has been on a good run for over a year now but might be better than ever now; romped by 6 here Dec. 6, was claimed by Joseph Jr. and came back to win easily again at this trip here Jan. 16, earning a career-top Beyer; earned another shot at a graded stakes here, too; only prior graded stakes try came at DEL last summer but not only was that a brutally tough G2, it was at 10fs so she was out of her element in terms of class and distance; that may not be the case this time; worked strongly since.

Makes first start for Pletcher; comes off a 6th in a very tough G2 on turf at SA Nov. 3; wasn't disgraced and has run well on turf, but this (dirt) maybe better for her; 2 of her 4 wins have come on this track, including a G2 over 10 months ago so she likes it here, and 3 of her wins came at this very trip; worked in solid fashion for a trainer who's strong off the bench; has tactical speed to be in a good spot from the start, though note her prior 2 tries off the bench weren't her best.

A well-beaten 6th in the G3 Rampart here 2 months ago, then went to TAM for a stakes Jan. 18 and ran on for 2nd, but let's face it, she was no threat that day to a big winner; the good news is that big winner (Jehozacat) came right back to win a G3 on turf, beating world-class Got Stormy, and another runner in that TAM race came right back to win; speed can have her well positioned from the start, though she hasn't done her best work here (4-0-2-0) and a few of these have gotten the best of her before.

Had a super 2018, then off a layoff was a strong 2nd in the G1 Ashland at KEE last April, sending her into the G1 Ky. Oaks May 3 as one of the favorites; however, she was very dull that day and hasn't been seen since; was targeting a return but had some quarter crack issues; word is she's doing great now and she's worked in super fashion for this return; certainly if able to come back with her 'A' game she can be scary, but off the long layoff and the foot issue that's no small 'if', is it?

Had a very smart 2019, winning a couple G3s; the 2nd of those in the Turnback the Alarm at AQU Nov. 2 was important because that came after she was pulled up in the G1 Personal Ensign; the Turnback the Alarm showed there were no ill effects from that debacle; freshened again since, has been working splendidly and is proven off the bench; only prior start here resulted in a bit optional claiming win.

Set the pace in the G3 Rampart here Dec. 14, opened up into the lane but was no match when Pink Sands roared past in the lane; that run was flattered as Pink Sands came back to romp in the G2 Inside Information here last month; makes first start for hot trainer Joseph Jr., has speed to be in it from the start, has done her best work here (both career wins), is proven off a layoff, proven here and working superbly; speed is her main weapon, though note a big SW here in Sept. 2018 from well off the early pace so she's got some versatility. -Michael Hammersly
