CLOSER LOOK: Sea the Stars is 5 for 21 with both debuters and first-time grass performers; sire was a turf monster that won the Arc and earned almost $7 million; this filly's Grade 3 winning dam won 7 times, 5 times on grass and earned over $300K; this racer's 3 siblings to race are a combined 0 for 39; like the blowout last Wednesday but it's never simple to win going long at first asking.

Beyers going in the right direction and this miss seems to have some semblance of talent but never thrilled with runners at this level after repeated defeats when offered for sale; dam cashed in 5 dirt sprints, earned almost $100K; both siblings were double winners; one won twice sprinting on dirt, the other won twice routing on dirt; would lean toward waiting for a softer spot.

Toss the debut when she could not stand up in the off going but the last race was solid and like the way she was inching toward the winner late; dam's lone win did come on grass; this is her first to race; she fits on the Beyer scale and with slight improvement, could be a handful.

 Quality Road about 14% with debuters in a 395-starter grid, about 11% with first-time turfers after 281-runners; sire took debut at 2, won multiple Grade 1s, earned over $2.2 million, never turfed; dam was 4 for 14 on the track, won thrice on turf, earned over $100K; lone half-brother Improbable won Grade 1 CashCall Futurity, earned over $900K, never turfed; the blood sure is there.

 This sophomore may have lost her debut in the Racing Office when she drew the marooned slot; she still held up her end pretty well; dam's lone win was a dirt sprint; this is her first to race; got a feeling we have not seen this racer's A game yet.

 Fit enough to drill a couple of times since getting a feel of the course, miss has natural speed and should be forwardly placed once again; dam was unraced; this is her first to race; she looms the speed of the speed and would have to figure Ortiz would be very aggressive here.

 She walked out of the gate and pretty much that was that; dam was only 2 for 25 but both wins came on grass; one sibling lost 6 times; the other, Mr Dumas, cashed twice on grass, took a G3, earned over $200K; wonder how high the expectations can be for this $11K purchase? -Brian Mulligan
