CLOSER LOOK: Plenty of pedigree as a daughter of Curlin (progeny's average winning distance of 7.5 furlongs) out of Grade 2-winning dirt miler Sign; showed good speed in first route start and was pressed hard by favored Kapiolani; left that horse in the dust entering the turn and think she went for home a bit too early with a very fast third split; had a clear lead at the sixteenth pole, but was run down late by a longshot that had a favorable setup; fifth-finisher came back to run third on turf with a 70 Beyer; expect Rosario to utilize this filly's speed again considering her excellent inside post position; would really benefit from a slower pace and the shorter stretch of this route distance; capable, but might fit best on bottom of single-race exotics.

Has the pedigree to endure this two-turn route as a daughter of War Front (AWD of 7.2 furlongs) and multiple Grade 2-winning dirt router Frivolous; finished ahead of three next-out winners in fast maiden special weight over sloppy going at Churchill on November 30 (fifth-finisher returned to win her next two at Oaklawn with Beyer's of 77 and 82, respectively); good effort in seasonal debut going short; bobbled at the start, recovered to push a four-ply pace from the rail, was shuffled back a bit into a tight pocket, seemed a bit uncomfortable trying to come through a tight spot inside at the three-sixteenths and finished well when clear; enough tactical speed to work out a nice stalking trip from this good inside post; contender.

Half to stakes-placed turf sprinter Wolverette is by Candy Ride (AWD of 7 furlongs) out of a multiple stakes-winning mare (one of those wins came going 1 1/8 miles at Charles Town); think she ran better than the running line indicates in debut as she was part of a multiple-horse pace battle while three wide; put all of her early rivals away and was understandably tired as the pace came apart late; one of those pace foes, tenth-finisher and beaten favorite Miss T Too, returned to graduate with a 78 Beyer; believe she's fast enough to get the lead and might be allowed more of a breather this time around; barn historically has good numbers with second-time starters stretching out; demand value.

Good to see her back without another layoff line and should appreciate this distance as a daughter of Bernardini (AWD of 7.4 furlongs) out of an unraced full sister to Santa Anita Derby winner Pioneer of the Nile; just raced as a Main Track Only entrant in an off-the-turf heat that featured mostly grass performers (runner-up came back to hit the board twice on turf with stereo 75 Beyers); broke sharp, but was outpaced through hot splits while three wide and in between; couldn't go with the winner on the turn, dropped down inside and finished up evenly; barn is 3 for 8 (38%, $3.77 ROI) over the past year with older runners (3-year-olds and up) moving from sprint to dirt route in the second start following a 61 to 120 layoff; needs Beyer boost.
