CLOSER LOOK: Hit the board just once in 7 starts, but didn't run badly in a few of those so there's some ability here; all that work came routing, too, so today's trip shouldn't be a problem; that said, all that came on turf so it's first time on dirt today, but hey, daddy won the G1 BC Classic on dirt, grandsire won the G1 BC Classic on dirt, mom was a multiple SW on dirt and damsire won the G1 BC Juvenile on dirt so you wouldn't think the footing will be an issue; both sibs are dirt winners, too, including American Frolic (24-4-6-2, $246K, SW).

Heading the right way; loomed a big threat on the far turn routing here last time out May 17 but then couldn't stay with Regal Beauty, a promising Baffert filly; to her credit she stayed on well for 2nd, well clear of 3rd; remember, too, that was her first start in 4 months as well; worked nicely since and Van Dyke sees fit to ride; she has the tactical speed to be in it from the start; lone sib to race is Don't Blame Judy (21-2-5-4, $184K).

 Sprint debut here May 25 wasn't very pretty but hey, you can always be a bit forgiving about a first run; has worked well since, too; still, she didn't show much of anything May 25 and now she's asked to route for the first time AND step up in class; 2 of 4 sibs are winners including Kitty Marie (13-3-5-0, $111K, SP).

 Gives Baffert a couple looks at this (also sends out Via Angelica); cost $750K so you know there are expectations here; debut wasn't bad as she stalked and ran 3rd, and looks better when you consider that not only was it her debut but she was asked to do it routing; as good as Baffert is first time out he's about as good 2nd time out; pedigree screams routing so the trip should be no sweat; 3 works since weren't all that brisk, however; all 3 sibs to race are winners including Escapade (11-4-3-1, $163K, 2 SPs).

 One of 2 Bafferts in here (also sends out Crystal Ball); a bit slow into stride in her sprint debut here May 25 but kept to her task to get up for 3rd, though let's face it, she was never really a factor as she was beaten by 5 1/2 lengths; still, she can surely benefit from that run; as noted above, Baffert is about as good 2nd time out as he is first time out; certainly bred to route and posted a brisk work since; 6 of 9 sibs to race are winners including Easter Gift (19-7-3-2, $686K, had 2 SWs including a G3, 3 SPs including a G1 and G3).

No real factor in first 2 starts, though she hinted at ability in each, making a nice midrace move in her turf debut at DMR last summer and showing speed routing on dirt here last Oct. 12; hasn't been seen since, which is a tad worrisome, but it's nice to see no drop and that Prat sees fit to ride; that last run was flattered, too, as 3 she faced there came right back to win; all 5 sibs to race are winners including full-sister Picasso Moon (31-6-3-3, $145K, 4 route wins). -Michael Hammersly
